

Tarantella at the Citadel

By Jean-Claude Elias

AMMAN - The bite of the tarantula spider that gives its name to the Tarantella dance and culture on which the music of Eugenio Bennato is based may not be infectious, but his music certainly is. He proved it beyond any doubt Monday night with a unique, breathtaking performance.

The celebrated Italian musician and his band gave a most inspiring and entertaining concert at the Amman Citadel, bringing the spirit, the liveliness and the emotional content of the music from southern Italy to Jordan. The event was titled “Let it be Mediterranean” by the Italian embassy in the country, who was organising the concert.

(Leggi l'intero articolo sul JordanTimes)